

Keepin' it sassy since 2017

Hey there gorgeous :)

Did you get to stroll on the sun-warmed beach today?
Or was it hiking a rocky mountain while enjoying a breathtaking view?
Oh, I know! You went & watched that bombastic music fest, didn't you?

How fun! But there's something missing... can you feel it?

We, the people at Corgi & Cheese is all about living a vibrant life to the fullest — like you! And we feel like there's gotta be something more, something that can make our fun-loving lives extraordinary.

Finally, we found the answer. What we — bold, fun-loving, sassy individuals — want is to translate all of our vibrant personalities into something we can show to the world.

Something as vibrant, quirky, and witty as ourselves! Isn't it fantastic?

And so, Corgi & Cheese apparel is created — for the bold who stands up for what they believe in, for the fun-loving girls who're always keen to try new experiences, and for the sassy ones who always stand out no matter where they are.

The only question that remains now is...

Are you ready to unleash your sassy-self to the world?

Here's to the sassy life,
Corgi & Cheese team
